FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Guitar Fort Worth and Texas Wesleyan University Present the 2007/2008 Wesleyan Masters Concert Series

FORT WORTH, Aug. 08 – Guitar Fort Worth, Home of the Guitar Orchestra Fort Worth and Texas Wesleyan University Department of Music —invites you to join its family of classical guitar aficionados for an exciting 2007-2008 season of world-class classical guitar events, during the Wesleyan Masters Concert Series starting September 21th with virtuoso Tom Sheeley. Don't miss Spanish sensation and Gold Medal winner at the inaugural Christopher Parkening International Guitar Competition Pablo Sáinz Villegas in November, Mexico's Zaira Meneses strums in the New year in January, and March brings the Swedish Muse and award-winning guitarist Johannes Möller in an enthralling performance. Ending the season on an exciting note—Eliot Fisk returns to Fort Worth in April. All concerts will be at the beautiful Martin hall on the historic campus at Texas Wesleyan University.

Guitar Fort Worth is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) corporation dedicated to preserving the traditions of classic guitar as the maestros played it. Classic guitar aficionados, educators, aspiring artists, professional and amateur performers of all ages comprise our family. Guitar Fort Worth serves student, adult, and professional members by offering resources and activities relating to classical guitar.
